Decision to Continue Detention

This letter is to inform you that the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has reviewed your custody status and determined that you will not be released from custody at this time. This decision was based on a review of your file record and/or personal interview and consideration of any information you submitted to ICE reviewing officials.

You are a native and a citizen of Indonesia who last entered the United States at Los Angeles, CA as a nonimmigrant visitor. You were issued a Notice to Appear (NTA) charging you under Section 237(a)(1)(B). You were ordered removed by an Immigration Official. You appealed the removal decision with the Board of Appeals and it was dismissed. You filed a Petition for Writ of Habeas with the U.S. District Court. The U.S. District Court dismissed the Petition. You filed a Motion to Reopen (MTR) with the Board of Appeals. The MTR is currently pending. You filed an I-246 Stay of Removal and it was approved until February 9, 2019.

You will remain in ICE custody pending the outcome of your pending litigation.

This decision, however, does not preclude you from bringing forth evidence in the future to demonstrate a good reason why your removal is unlikely. You are advised that pursuant to Section 241(a)(1)(C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) you must demonstrate that you are making reasonable efforts to comply with the order of removal, and that you are cooperating with ICE efforts to remove you by taking whatever actions ICE requests to affect your removal.

You are also advised that any willful failure or refusal on your part to make timely application in good faith for travel or other documents necessary for your departure, or any conspiracy or actions to prevent your removal or obstruct the issuance of a travel document, may subject you to criminal prosecution under 8 USC § 1253(a).
